Vote Down Some Amendments. An amendment by Alderman Tinley, the effect of which was to make the company use Eleventh avenue in place of Ninth avenue, was lost. On behalf of the company it was contended that to use Eleventh avenue would necessitate a number of dangerous crossings over the tracks of the Alderman Tinley also offered an amendment which in substance prohibited the company from using any of the streets named in subdivision one for any but passenger traffic, except as provided by the state laws governing interurban railroads. The state law; it was explained, provides that on interurban railroads all freight, express and baggage shall be carried in combination cars similar in construction to the passenger cars. This amendment also failed to carry. As the ordinance is the company has the right to operate freight cars on these streets north of Tenth avenue between the hours of 1 and 5 a. m. A compromise was reached, however, by a provision being inserted prohibiting the hauling of stock over these tracks.

Rucker, under arrest in Omaha or an indictment returned by the grand jury on a charge of cheating by false pretenses connection with a real estate deal, secured his release yesterday morning on a writ of habeas corpus. FIRE CONSUMES DRY GOODS

Syndicate Trading Company's Loss Total and Other Firms Suffer Considerable Damage.

One of the most serious fires which has visited this city for some time broke out about 11 o'clock last night in the store of the Syndicate Trading company in the Beno-Shugart block, running from Main to Pearl streets. The firm carries a stock of dry goods estimated in value at from $5,000 to $10,000, and this was practically entirely consumed. What was not burned was ruined by water and smoke, but little of it, however, escaping the flames. When the fire was first discovered it had gained great headway and by the time the firemen arrived the entire interior of the store was ablaze. The fire itself was confined to this one store, but water and smoke did considerable damage to stocks in adjoining stores.

Culver & Woodbury, dry goods, to the south, occupy a large double store, like submitted to a vote of the people before the one where the fire originated, running through from Main to Pearl streets. The stock on the main floor is damaged by smoke and that in the basement by smoke and water. Just how much their damage was the firm was not prepared to state lows: Provision for a forfeiture of the last night, but it is fully covered by insurance. To the north, Pearson Bros., dealers draperies and upholstering goods, suffered about $2,000 and most of the goods are ruined

Still further to the north the wholesale grocery stock of Stewart Bros, on the second floor of their building is damaged by smoke.

The loss on the building will not be great. With the exception of the Syndicate Trading company it is stated the losses are fully covered by insurance. What the insurance on this stock amounts to could not be ascertained last night, as the manager. James Shelley, could not be found. He was seen about the city earlier in the evening, but could not be located later. Until he is seen it will not be known definitely what was the value of the stock or the amount of insurance carried. None of the employes of the company seen last evening was willing to venture an opinion on either point, but those familiar with the stock placed its value all the way from $5,000 to $10,000.

No one is able to state how the fire started. When first seen it had gained great headway and appeared to have made the most progress on the Pearl street side of the main floor. The firm has its headquarters in Kansas City and opened for business in this city about one year ago. 'It has done at least a fairly good business during most, if not all, of the time.

NEW MOVE IN SALOON FIGHT Search Warrants for Places Where Gambling Was Supposed to Be Conducted.

A new phase entered into the saloon fight yesterday when Attorney Wadsworth, representing the Storz Brewing company, se cured search warrants from the court of Justice Carson for certain buildings in which gambling was said to conducted.

Wadsworth's action and been foreseen and at the Hoffman the paraphernalia had Crawford's addition, was passed. A reso-lution also was adopted calling for the constables, however, discovered several grading of Avenue I between Eighth and tables and other paraphernalia in a room in the building adjoining the Hoffman of which they took possession.

Paul O'Hara, the young man who tried last week to get warrants against slot machines, joined in the crusade against the gambling houses yesterday and secured from Justice Carson a search warrant for the Albany club. Here, however, the constable found the place closed and only a few plain tables and chairs in the room. O'Hara resides at 1026 Avenue C and until recently was employed in a Broadway restaurant, but is said to be at present working for an insurance agent named H. O. Meade. He has been a resident, ac cording to his own statement of Council Bluffs only since last September. He claimed to be working independent of

CHARGES OF FRAUD ARE FREELY MADE

More Votes Cast at the Primarie Than Party is Supposed to Be Able to Muster in the , City.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Jan. 18 .- (Special.) -- The republican primary election was held today. It was quieter than anticipated and yet had features of interest. The fight was chiefly for nomination of a republicar candidate for mayor, but there was also a contest for aldermen in each one of the seven wards, and for city assessor. The compact to have a harmonious primary with only one set of judges was kept, though on the opening of the polls the compact came near being broken and chaos precipitated by actions at one precinct. One of the judges was not on hand promptly, and the city committee filled the vacancy by placing on a man which would give the full control in that ward to the Mattern men. As that was the city hall precinct and a close one, there was trouble until a change was made. Other than this the day was quiet, save that it more nearly resembled a national election than a local fight, so intense was the zeal of the partilection of Mattern for mayor over Mac-Vicar, Mattern having eighty-two of the 140 delegates to the city convention. The vote is about evenly divided between the two men. Nearly 10,000 votes were cast, which is far more than the republicans have in the city. Accusations of fraud and corruption are made this evening. A white man and negro entered an East side booth where the judges were counting the ballots and the negro ran out with a handful of the ballots. He was pursued and shot at a number of times, but not cap-

Feel Sure of the Plummers. B. W. Garrett, pardon clerk in the office of the governor, is hot after Mr. and Mrs. William Plummer, who are fugitives from justice in Iowa, having left the state contrary to the terms of their parole. The Plummers came into notoriety in Sloux City, where Mr. Plummer was arrested and placed in jail, for a trivial offense. Mrs. Plummer smuggled a revelver to him and they got away. They were caught in Minneapolfs, where she was wearing men's clothing. Both were sent to the penitentiary, but were granted paroles. They lived for a time in Cedar Rapids and then went until a few days ago, when they got into trouble with their employer at a hotel in Kelliher, Minn. They drove the proprietor out with revolvers and kept possession of the entire hotel all one night, despite the efforts of a posse to dislodge them. In the morning they surrendered, paid a fine and departed. Not until they had been released was it known they were the people wanted in Iowa, and now Secretary Garrett is after them and expects to have

A man had been ar rested and fined for allowing two dogs to run at large unmussled in the town. The district court had released the man on the theory that the laws of the state do not authorize any such measure to prevent dogs running at large and that the only ing between life and death as a result of for dogs running at large is to provide for killing them. The supreme ourt takes the opposite view and declares that a fown or city may fine the owner of dogs that are allowed to run at large and the ordinance was therefore legal. Reporters Are Barred.

The Ministerial association at its meeting this morning decided that reporters will be barred in the future. The feeling was expressed by several that the mind of the reporter was not able to compass the great uestions that they were in the habit of discussing and that he could not therefore hope to get a correct report for his respectpublication. Above this was the thought that the public had no right to a glimpse of the minister outside of the oulpit and while on his ministerial rounds, and that the work of the association was not in any way the property of the public. The discussion over the measure was long, but was unanimous, and but one man, Walker of the First Baptist church, voted in favor of the old regime.

Nobody connected with the Northern Securities company, or the Burlington has ever said one word to me on the subject of Iowa politics or the nomination of President Réosevelt. And I. in common with all the republicans of lows, as represented by the acts of our conventions in 1902 and 1903, am thoroughly committed to the nomination of Roosevelt, and I am in favor of it. These stories to the contrary are utter rubbish."

Mr. Blythe says further that he cannot understand how Governor Cummins as a republican can take the ground he does on reciprocity in competitive articles. The republican party is thoroughly committed to our present tariff policy.
